* Gerald Helsel, of Roaring Spring, Pa. (my Clapperauthority) gives that Jacob was the s/o George Brumbaugh & Anna Hoover - she the widow of Christian Hoover, maiden name Anna Houser. If this is right, and I believe that it is, then the last 5 children would be from 2nd marriage. George Brumbaugh does give in his will 'my wife ANNA' and names all 12 children - he does not give 'wife Susanna'. So it does seem logical that Anna was his second wife. However I did not find in the "Brumbaugh Book" that he was married twice - but I skimmed thru it hurriedly and know that I missed more that I got.

Huntingdon Co. Plot Is Preserved

HUNDREDS of descendants of six people buried here now live in Huntingdon, Blair and Bedford Counties of Pennsylvania. Beaver, Fouse, Shultz, Lang, Hoover, Donelson are common names to be found.

On August 24, 1961, Lawrence W. Shultz of North Manchester, Indiana with the aid of Beaver Monuments of Huntingdon, Pa., Allen Fouse and his helper Solomon Norris, placed a memorial stone at this plot and erected two markers along the highway and roadside to indicate this family plot as a historical site.

The markers read—SHULTZ CEMETERY

John Shultz 1791-1851
Mary (Beaver) Shultz
Henry Shultz 1762-1830
Saloma, his wife, (Parents of John)
Anthony Beaver, 1761-1839
Susanna (Clapper) Beaver, (Parents of Mary)

Anthony Beaver was a Revolutionary War soldier who served under Daniel Morgan, was present at the surrender of Cornwallis, and at the battles of Cowpens, Eutaw Springs, and Fort Moultrie. Many D A R members trace their record back to him.

The Woodstock Valley Lions' Club in 1963 cleared the plot of shrubs and on October 5, 1965 Sam Garner of Marklesburg and Lawrence W. Shultz burned the brush and planned to clear the small undergrowth by spraying so that the area can become a well kept cemetery. One can drive by car to the site and it is hoped that organizations and some individuals will make possible the upkeep of this historic spot. (Lineage of LAWRENCE W Shultz/Isaac/Samuel/John /Henry/Martin/ Martin Shultz bought land here in 1790 from Benjamin Chew of Philadelphia and Chew had his holdings from the Pennsylvania heirs.) A book SHULTZ FAMILY RECORD by Lawrence W. Shultz, North Manchester, Indiana — several hundred pages, is being prepared.

'Doctor Woman' and Her Iron Dinner Pot Familiar in Pa.

By Emma Schock

(Written about the year 1890)

My story is about a dinner pot which belonged to my great grandmother, NANCY BRECKENRIDGE REED.

She was known among the neighbors as the "Doctor Woman."

In the latter half of the 18th century she was a familiar figure on the pioneer trails of southern Pennsylvania.

Riding horseback from one home to another, no night was too dark, or distance too great for her to respond to the call of need.

Naturally, she was not home always at meal time, so she made up her mind that she was going to have a small iron pot to cook her own dinner in.

I remember as a child hearing the older pepole say with awe and admiration that grandmother Nancy went to the forge herself and had that little pot made. They called it small, but it holds six quarts and has an iron lid, and jointed removable handle two feet high to hang on a crane over the fire.

At one time there was an Indian raid on the settlement, the family snatched the few things they could carry, among them the precious pot, and fled to the woods, where they remained in hiding a few days. When they returned they found their home in ashes. With true colonial grit they set about rebuilding their home at once.

Grandmother Nancy continued using the pot until her death in 1796.

On one of her trips of mercy, she was thrown from her horse when it was frightened by a rattle snake. When her family found her, she was beyond help.

She had a large family, and it is related that the eldest son married one of the BLACK sisters living nearby.

His father suggested to the next son that he marry the second sister and help keep the property in the family, to which the boy replied, "Oh no, Daddy, one cake of a baking is enough."

Two brothers, however, married two other BLACK sisters.

In 1805, two of these brothers concluded to come to the new state of Ohio. They traveled in a large wagon, drawn by two stout horses and brought with them the bedding, pewter, dishes, implements of labor, and tools necessary to found their new home in the wilderness. And they also brought their mother's famous iron pot and used it to do all the cooking on the way.

They located in Fairfield County, Ohio. The pot remained in the possession of one of the family being in constant use until the death of the last daughter five years ago, when I became the fortunate recipient of it. It now rests in our attic.

If it could talk couldn't it tell some wonderful stories?

Dear Deloris,

Sorry to hear that Bill has had so much trouble, but also happy to hear that he is doing so well. We did miss you at N. Manchester. Had a good meeting, good attendence and a good time. Also the next Sat. 12th Oct at Happy Corner, Dayton, Ohio. Again a nice crowd and good speakers.

The obit that you sent from the 1939 Vindicator - would be like this:

John & Nancy died in York Co., Nebr. and are buried in a cemetery near Bradshaw Nebr. They had 7 children, one son and six daughters, all but two daughters died as infants.

I don't know (haven't looked yet) if this family is in your book.

Thanks for the Bacon-Metzger data. It is almost what I have. I have written to Chet Peters a few times but not about this family.

I haven't heard from Ray Wolff in quite a while. Early this spring he wrote thanking me for the material that I sent him. He said then that he was covered up and as soon as he got caught up and was able to study what I had sent me would get back to me comparing what I had with what he had. _ haven't heard since

At the present I am not going to get into computer. My son in Berea has both word processer and a computer in his office. I can use either or both when I am there but I'm not there enough to make it worth while. I have a sister-in-law (my wife's sister) who is planning on retireing in a couple more years. She is the main on on the computer at her office and she is planning on getting one when she retires. As she never married, and as she said she would have to have something to do after she retired, she says she will put all of mu 'stuff' on the computer for me. The main trouble with this is that she lives in Greenville, Ohio and I live about 30 miles away in Portland. But when she gets ready I am sure that we will be able to work something out.

This is all I can think of at this time.

Sincerely,

Wilbur

M6 John Jr	76.6	A6	I have rearranged this family group after reading the various U. S. Census and tombstone inscriptions. Anyway you had most of the exact birthdates.
M61	76.6.1	A-6-2	I found a family history concerning Jacob & His descendants as well as the Indiana and Kansas Census. Also found his burial in Wayne Co. Ind.	Jacob
M62	76.6.2	A-6-1	Found a Hoover family history with reference to Catharine Hoover marrying David Metzger. Located them in the census in Randolph Co. Ind. with burials in neighboring Wayne Co. Ind. The David Metzger buried in Spring Hope Cem. is too old to possibly be John Jr's son. The census corroborates the 1788 birth year.	David
M611	76.6.4	A-6-4	Found all these children in the 1870 census. Samuel and Rebecca still at home with their parents.	Nancy
M64 George	76.6.6	A-6-5	One question on this family is the marriage of #5-Samuel to Catharine Kensinger. In 1870 census, his wife is Sarah. I have his obit, states 2 marriages. On your A6-7 your have #8 Samuel also married to Catharine Kensinger. From some miscellaneous papers I have of Willodean Metzger Andrews--the same thing occurs and they have the same children for both Samuels???? Apparently Mary Metzger's husband, Samuel Clapper is deceased as she and her children are residing with her parents. I didn't find #6 in 1870, but did find all others.
M67	76.6.7	A-6-6	Mary and Rebecca are never shown as twins or being the same age in any of the three census.	Elizabeth
M68 Isaac	76.6.8	A-6-8	Found all this family 1850 and 60, but didn't find the parents or 1,3,4,7 & 10 in 1870 in Blair Co. Pa. Found #6 as STONER.
M65 Catharine	76.6.9	A-6-9	I believe Mary Ann Burget who married Isaac C. Hoover is incorrectly assigned to this family. I have read the census for 1850,60 and 70 and she is never with this family. None of their listed daughters were born @ 1841. On page 705 of the Brumbaugh book I find Isaac Hoover did indeed marry Mary Ann Burget. Isaac Hoover is till living with his parents, unmarried, in 1870. There are many BURGET'S! #11-Nancy is only one with their mother in 1870 census.
M69 Fanny	76.6.10	A-6-8	This family is in Bedford Co., Pa. in 1850 and 1860 and apparently lived out their lives there, in Hopewell Tsp. So they weren't too far away!
M610 Susanna	76.6.11	A-6-12	Susanna & Wm. Brumback moved to Wayne Co. Ind between 1835 and 1837. They are recorded in the census and in the cemetery as BRUMBACK.
M612 Daniel	76.6.12	A-6-13	Only George is married by 1870. He and wife, Elizabeth are residing with his parents and sibling.
M613 Christianna	76.6.13	A-6-10	I found 10 children through the 1850, 60, & 70 census. It's possible three more were born after that.

PHILLIP METSKER, farmer, Section 13, P. O. Echo, born in Morrison's Cove, Blair Co., Penn., July 28, 1824. At the age of nine years, he removed with his parents to Henry County, Ind., where he remained until 1860, engaged in farming. He came to Kansas in 1860, and settled in Marion Township, where he owns a fine farm of 517 acres—350 of which are under the plow and the balance in timber and pasture. In 1870, he erected a fine house at a cost of $3,000. The large quantity of fruit of every variety, the large outbuildings, the fine fences on this farm, show him to be a most excellent farmer. Mr. Metsker was married in Henry County, Ind., December 27, 1846, to Miss Catherine Replong, who died 1852 He was again married in Indiana October 28, 1854, to Miss Barbara Longenacker, who still survives. They have nine children, viz.: Samuel, Sarah J., Lucinda, Benjamin F., Jacob M., John L., Joseph M., Andrew E. and Elizabeth; two of these—Jacob M. and Elizabeth—are dead. Mr. and Mrs. Metsker are members of the German Baptist Church.

popular and greatly influential man. But it happened with him as it does with scores of prominent men—there comes a time when the popular feeling begins to cool toward them. And if they are shrewd enough (which most, however, are not) to realize the fact and gracefully bow themselves out, all goes well; but all are not thus keen-sighted, and a struggle against fate followed by defeat is the result. Mr. Hendricks doubtless will continue in the future as during the past a personage of influence and usefulness, retaining, as he does, the estimable qualities which for so many years of his earlier life enabled him to hold so firmly a commanding position among his fellow-men.

Miles Hunt was born in Kentucky September 10, 1808. He came early to this county in 1824, at the age of sixteen, and has been a resident of Randolph fifty-eight years. He has been identified with the interests of the county for more than half a century, representing the county at one time in the State Legislature when comparatively a young man. Mr. Hunt has raised a large family, now grown men and women, who are now among the useful and worthy citizens of their native commonwealth. He has been a life-long Democrat, being one of the few who have clung to that political faith in the face of the overwhelming adverse majorities for many years in this Republican county. Since the time of the Murphy revival he has been an active and enthusiastic temperance worker, being now engaged along with his worthy companion in the advocacy of the prohibition movement. He was one of the proprietors of the town of Huntsville forty-seven years ago when a young man twenty-six years ago, and he has for many years been a resident of Losantsville, formerly Hunt's Cross Roads. Mr. Hunt, though past threescore years and ten, is still vigorous and energetic, showing more strength and activity than many another person fifteen years his junior. Long may he survive to wave aloft the temperance banner, even until he shall behold it float in triumph over the last grim fortress of King Alcohol!

Antony Johnson came to Nettle Creek, Randolph County, Ind., as soon as 1829 (may be sooner than that). He and his wife are very old, he being eighty-six years old and she some younger. They reside on a small farm northeast of Losantsville. Full fifty years and even more have passed over their heads, for weal and woe, in sunshine or in storm, since first this now aged couple reared their humble home beneath the leafy shade of the giant trees of Randolph forests. The ax, that mighty instrument of fate in the brawny hands of the stalwart pioneer, has accomplished its wondrous task, and the sun pours down upon those now denuded fields its fiery rays, where, for long ages before, its utmost power could not avail to reach. And two generations have disappeared from sight, and been hidden beneath the crumbling mold of the lonely graveyard. Yet these two still survive, almost the only remnants of that early race who made the heroic onslaught upon the mighty forests which had for so long a time hidden the earth's genial surface deep and dark beneath its overreaching foliage. They yet remain. But not for long. Even while I write these lines as this memorial to the coming ages, the decree may have gone forth for them. "The silver cord is loosed, the golden bowl is broken, the pitcher is broken at the fountain and the wheel is broken at the cistern. Let the dust return to dust as it was, and the spirit return to God who gave it." At any rate, for them speedily, for us all in God's in good time, the final summons will surely come.

Daniel E. Johnson is the son of Reuben Johnson, and the brother of L. Williams Johnson, and perhaps of others by that name in the vicinity. He is a wealthy farmer, residing northeast of Losantsville, in the fertile region of the Little White River. He is a thriving farmer, an active business man and a prominent Democrat. In much of Randolph County, Republican predominance is so strong as to cut Democrats off from all hope of preferment, and in Nettle Creek Township the Republican is generally the stronger side. But the Democrats in this township are a bold, defiant party, and sometimes, when the Republicans fall out among themselves, the other sort strike all as one and make a success. All honor to the sincere, upright, honest yeomanry, and not for spoil. And such, indeed, must the Democrats of Randolph be. For, buried deep under the weight of an opposing majority, sometimes o 2,200, what but solid convictions can keep the average Randolp County Democrat loyal and unyielding to his fealty? Party spoils there are none for him. His view of political duty hold him fast and firm as the "needle to the pole."

Reuben Johnson was born in Surry County, N. C., in 1796. He came to Hagerstown, Wayne Co., Ind., in 1830, and to Losantsville in 1832. He married Mary Harville, and had nin children. He died in 1857, and his wife in 1863. He was a farmer, a Baptist and a Democrat. Several of his sons are living, and are prominent citizens, residing in the vicinity of Losantsville.

Lewis Williams Johnson is the son of Reuben Johnson. He was born in North Carolina in 1819, came to Hagerstown, Wayne Co., Ind., in 1831, and to Nettle Creek, Randolph Co., Ind., in 1832. He married Eunice Hodgson in 1841, and Martha A. Canada in 1864 (who was born in 1845). He has had sixteen children; thirteen of them are living, seven have been married, and seven are at home. He is a prominent citizen and farmer. He is a member of the Christian (New Light) Church, and in politics a Democrat. He has been Township Trustee and Township Assessor. He is also a local preacher in the denomination to which he belongs, an estimable man and a valuable member of society.

George Leaky was born in Tennessee in 1804, emigrated to Clinton County, Ohio, in 1816, married Lydia Hiatt in 1823, and moved to Randolph County, Ind., in 1834. His first wife died in 1834, and he married Jane (Sanders) Peters in 1836. He was the father of ten children, all of whom are living, and all are married but one. He died in 1877 at the age of seventy-three. He entered at first eighty acres, and afterward 160 more, making for himself and family an extensive and profitable farm. He was a member of the Christian denomination, and died in 1877, leaving behind a large and interesting group of descendants and relatives.

Christian Leaky was the son of George Leaky, being born in Clinton County, Ohio, in 1829, and coming to Randolph County, Ind., in 1834. He married Sidney A. Snodgrass in 1854, and they have had six children. He is a member of the Christian (New Light) Church, a farmer by vocation, living north of Losantsville, and the owner of 360 acres of excellent land.

Henry Leaky was born in Tennessee in 1794, being an older brother of George Leaky. He came to Ohio in early life, and to Randolph County, Ind., in 1831, having married Jane Frery a considerable time previous. They had seven children, and he died in 1867, being sixty-seven years old. He was a farmer and had filled the office of Justice of the Peace, both in Indiana and for a long time in Ohio, besides which, moreover, he held, during one term, the position of County Commissioner of Randolph. In religious connection, he belonged to the body calling themselves Christians.

Anna Leaky (McGunnigill Snodgrass) married Charles McGunnigill, who came from South Carolina to Randolph County, Ind., in 1834. Mr. McGunnigill was born in 1801, and died in 1862. She has had ten children; seven of the children are living, and six have been married. She is now the wife of William Snodgrass, whose biography is given elsewhere.

David Metzgar lived south of Losantsville. He died in 1874. One of his sons died in Andersonville Prison. His daughter (wife of Frank Burroughs) lives on the old homestead, one and one-half miles south of Losantsville. He was a prominent citizen of Nettle Creek, but we have not at hand at this writing material for a more extended biography.

William Shullabarger came to Randolph County sixty years since. When he settled in Nettle Creek is not certainly known. He was killed many years ago by the falling of a tree upon him. His widow married William C. Hendricks, an account of whom is elsewhere given.

Hamilton Snodgrass has been a resident of Nettle Creek for more than half a century. His boyhood days were spent in different places, and in three States—Tennessee, Ohio and Indiana.

war he located at Charlestown, Jefferson county, West Virginia, where he read law with Hon. William H. Travers, and after finishing his course of reading, was admitted to the bar there in 1870. He at once removed to Tamaqua, Schuylkill county, Pennsylvania, where he became associated for a time with C. F. Shindel, a prominent member of the bar of that county. Early in 1872 he removed to Hazelton, Luzerne county, where he was admitted to the bar April 11, and was engaged in practice there until September of that year, when, having received the appointment of district attorney of a newly organized judicial district in the western part of Kansas, he removed to and located at Hays City, Ellis county, that State. He returned to Pennsylvania in 1873, locating at Altoona, this (Blair) county, in June of that year, where he has since resided in the practice of his profession, to which he has devoted the strictest attention, and as a result thereof he now enjoys the distinction of having, perhaps, the largest and most lucrative practice of any attorney in Blair county. He has been for years the solicitor of the First National bank of Altoona, and has the reputation of being an exceedingly safe counselor. His attention is almost exclusively directed to commercial law.

On September 1, 1875, Mr. Leisenring was united in marriage with Anna M. Cherry, of the city of Altoona. To them have been born two children: Henrietta Sarah, who was born July 31, 1876; and Annie Lydia, born November 23, 1877, and who died July 27, 1878.

Politically Mr. Leisenring is a stanch republican, and during his residence in West Virginia (when an active adherence to the principles of his party was not always safe), he took an active part in the politics of the State, but since locating at Altoona he has paid little attention to practical politics. He is the author of "Leisenring's Book of Forms," a valuable book to the general practitioner, and a recognized authority in its particular direction. He has long been a prominent member of the Grand Army of the Republic, in which he has held a number of important positions, and is past commander of S. C. Potts Post, No. 62, department of Pennsylvania.

In business methods Mr. Leisenring is determined and aggressive; in manner somewhat blunt and brusque, but no one stands higher in the estimation of his closer acquaintances, and in the opinion of his professional brethren, than he does.

WILLIAM L. METZKER, one of the comfortably situated farmers of Huston township, is a son of Isaac and Anna (Lantz) Metzker, and was born in North Woodbury township, Blair county, Pennsylvania, November 21, 1833. The Metzker family is of German descent, and John Metzker, the paternal grandfather of William L. Metzker, was a native of Blair county, and died one and one-half miles east of Martinsburg, aged fifty-six years. He was a farmer, a democrat, and a member of the Brethren in Christ church. He married, and had a family of thirteen children, seven sons and six daughters. His son, Isaac Metzker (father), was born in Blair county, and died in North Woodbury township, September 18, 1891, aged eighty-two years, seven months and eighteen days. He was a farmer, and a democrat, and served for several years as a deacon of the German Baptist church. He owned a farm of one hundred and twenty acres of land, and married Anna Lantz, by whom he had ten children, three sons and seven daughters. She died February 26, 1880, aged sixty-six years, six months and eighteen days.

William L. Metzker was reared on a farm, and, like all farmers' sons of that day, received his education in the last of the subscription schools and the early free schools of Pennsylvania. He was carefully trained to farming and farm management, and leaving school, engaged in agricultural pursuits, which he has followed with good success up to the present time.

In 1874 Mr. Metzker married Barbara Stoner, a daughter of John and Lydia (Brumbaugh) Stoner, of near Martinsburg.

The brothers and sisters of William L. Metzker are as follows: John L. Metzker, born April 8, 1842; Samuel L. Metzker, born March 10, 1848, and died October 20, 1883; Rebecca Metzker, wife of Isaac Eversole, born February 7, 1836; Catharine Metzker, now the wife of John Kensinger, born April 23, 1838; Nancy Metzker, wife of John Hyping, born May 10, 1840; Virginia Metzker, wife of Christian Sturm, born February 5, 1844—now dead; Eliza Metzker, wife of Samuel Hudson, born February 18, 1846; Anna Metzker, wife of Henry Graul, born November 4, 1852; Elizabeth Metzker, wife of George D. Paul, born November 1, 1854.

In politics William L. Metzker is a democrat of the Jacksonian type. He owns, near Martinsburg, a very good farm of one hundred and eighteen acres of land, of which seventy-five acres are under cultivation. Mr. Metzker is a careful and successful farmer, and has given close attention to the improvement and development of his farm.

JOHN K. PATTERSON, a well established and successful member of the Blair county bar, and a substantial citizen and influential republican of Altoona, is a son of Thomas and Isabella (McConaghy) Patterson, and was born at Newry, in Blair township, Blair county, Pennsylvania, September 15, 1857. His father, Thomas Patterson, is of Irish descent, and was born in 1814 in the old and celebrated city of Dublin, once a great seat of learning and the capital of the now fallen kingdom of Ireland. He received his education in the schools of Ireland, which are noted for the thoroughness of the knowledge which they impart. Leaving school he followed farming, and was variously engaged in different kinds of work until 1854, when he sailed for the United States as being a wider field for individual effort and business success than that of his native land. Upon arriving in this country he came to Pennsylvania and settled at Newry, this county, where he has resided until the present time. He is a farmer by occupation, and owns a well improved farm of one hundred and fifty-nine acres, on which he has erected excellent farm buildings and a fine house. He has given his time for several years to farming and fruit growing, in which agricultural pursuits he has met with good success. Dear Delores,

Just when you think you've finished dealing with something, you can often find more information rising to the surface! In this case, it's more about Catharine Kensinger and Samuel Lantz Metzger. I received the complete photocopying of the book, Kensinger Families Of Central PA, from the Martinsburg Community Library and immediately looked up these two individuals out of curiosity. I was pleased to find them, and the data recorded fully supports the people and dates you found at the library in Independence, MO (1900 Census of Blair County, PA). I have enclosed my transcription of this info. in hopes that you will be interested in looking it over and adding it to your collection. I've also enclosed the corrected data page on Catharine and Samuel that appears in my book-in-progress.

Remember me asking you to look in your phone book for an address on Gene Shaffer? I wrote a short letter to him and enclosed one of my family information sheets for him to complete, but I haven't heard anything back. That's the way it goes sometimes.

I'm anticipating my June 16th trip to Modesto, Ca and getting my supplies together for the two month stay at my old address (537 El Cajon Avenue). Feel free to write me at the Roseburg address or the Modesto address if the Spirit moves you.

Sincerely,

Carolyn

FREDERICK M. KLEPSER, a well known resident of Martinsburg, Pa., and the owner and operator of Klepser's mill, situated in North Woodbury Township, Blair County, Pa., was born in Bedford County, March 15, 1852, and is a son of Frederick and Christine (Metzker) Klepser.

Frederick Klepser was born in Germany and was brought to the United States when he was quite young, his parents settling in what is now Blair County, Pa. Later Frederick Klepser settled at Puttstown, Pa., where he operated a tannery and store for many years, at the time when the Broad Top Railway was built in that section. Some years before his death he purchased the property known as Klepser's mill, in North Woodbury Township, Blair County, and this mill has been operated in the family continuously ever since. He was a man of sterling character and was widely known. He lived to be seventy-five years of age. In his religious connection he was a Lutheran and politically he was a Republican after the organization of that party.

Frederick M. Klepser was reared in North Woodbury Township and attended the public schools as opportunity was afforded him in his youth, and then learned the milling business in which he has continued ever since, engaging also in farming, and owning a well developed farm of 120 acres.

Mr. Klepser married Miss Mary Stoner, who was born near Martinsburg, a daughter of David B. Stoner, and they have four children, namely: Eva, who is the wife of J. E. Dilling, of Martinsburg; Elvin, who is a resident of Altoona; and Sannie and Harvey, who reside at Martinsburg. Mr. Klepser is a member of the Brethren Church at Martinsburg, being a deacon in the same. He is one of upright, honorable men of the borough and a most worthy and useful citizen.

P. L. MORRISON, the originator and proprietor of the Colonial Hotel, the only hostelry in Altoona conducted exclusively on the European plan, and the best equipped and most centrally located hotel in the city, was born in Fayette County, Pennsylvania, in 1871. His parents were George and Catharine (Cassiday) Morrison, both of whom, though born in Scotland, were descendants of Irish stock. To this union were born seven children: P. L., George, William, John, Michael, Mary, and Margaret. P. L. Morrison received his education in the public schools. Five years previous to October 6, 1906, when he came to Altoona, he resided at Aldine. He was married February 5, 1893, to Miss Catharine, a daughter of Michael Murphy, of Beaver Falls, Pa., and to this union are four children: William, Madaline, Paul and Patrick. Mr. and Mrs. Morrison are communicants of St. John's Catholic Pro-Cathedral. Fraternally, Mr. Morrison is an active member of the Benevolent Protective Order Elks, and politically is an adherent of the Republican party. The Colonial Hotel is an imposing affair, attractive in construction and erected of steel, concrete, brick and marble. The home-like atmosphere of the hotel, with its owner's genial hospitality, gives it extensive patronage. The Café Colonial, an adjunct of the hotel, is the recognized rendezvous of Altoona's smart set.

Howard Patton, president of the Howard Gas Coal Company, of Greensburg, Pa. Mr. Patton married a second time, in 1861, Emma Jane Hawksworth, of Altoona, Pa., who was born in 1834 and died in 1898, to whom two children were born: Mary Virginia, who married Harold A. Freeman, of Philadelphia, and Margaret Murray, who died in 1889 at the age of nineteen years. Mr. Patton moved to Philadelphia in 1876, where he died in 1882. He was buried in Fairview Cemetery, Altoona, Pa.

For about five years he operated a tannery at Puttstown, in Huntingdon County, and then moved on a farm in North Woodbury Township, Blair County, where he engaged in farming for ten years and then went into the milling business. For five years he conducted what was known as Klepser's mill. He was a man of industry and enterprise and spent a useful life which was extended to eighty years. He married Christiana Metzker, and of their children the following survive: Jeremiah, who lives at Martinsburg; Frederick, who is a resident of Martinsburg; R. C., who is a practicing physician at Altoona, Pa.; David M.; Harry M., who is in business at Altoona; Clara, who lives at Martinsburg; and Annie, who is the wife of Frank Stern, of Chicago, Ill.

David M. Klepser spent the greater part of his first eighteen years on his father's farm, attending school as occasion was offered, and then went to work for his father in Klepser's mill, where he continued until 1888, for several years before this date having leased and operated the mill for himself. In 1888 he went into the milling business at Martinsburg and since 1898 the firm of Klepser Bros.—David M. and Harry M.—have operated the White Lily Mills, doing a large business and having a warehouse located at Ninth Avenue and Nineteenth Street, Altoona. Their mills at Martinsburg are equipped with modern machinery. they have excellent shipping facilities and are known to the trade in general as honorable and reliable business men.

David M. Klepser married Miss Hannah Wineland, and they have three children: Lillie; Gertrude, who is the wife of Lee Hoover, residing at Connellsville; and Christie, who lives at home. Mr. Klepser and family are members of the Progressive Brethren church, of which he is a trustee. In politics he is a Republican and has been an active and useful citizen ever since coming to Martinsburg and investing here and is serving in his second term as a member of the borough council.

HENRY CLAY DERN, deceased, formerly one of the proprietors of the Altoona Tribune and an active newspaper man throughout his entire business life, was an influential factor in Republican politics in Blair County for many years. He was born in a little hamlet caled Double Pipe Creek, in Carroll County, Md., and was a son of Isaac and Susan (Koons) Dern.

The founder of the Dern family in Maryland came from Germany and his descendants have all been of a sturdy, thrifty, solid type, the class which America welcomes as citizens. The father of the late Henry Clay Dern was born in Maryland, in 1787, served in the War of 1812, and gave encouragement and financial support to the Federal Government early in the days of the Civil War, almost a half century later. For a number of years he was a justice of the peace in Carroll County and there his death occured in 1862, on his seventy-fifth birthday. He married Susan Koons, who died in 1839, leaving six children.

Henry Clay Dern made himself useful during boyhood in his father's cooper shop and only occasionally had an opportunity to attend school. Later, however, he had the education of a printing-office, one by no means to be despised, and by the time he had completed his apprenticeship in the offices of the Carroll County Democrat, he had a fair knowledge of many more sub-listed in the Union army in the Second Indiana Cavalry to serve three years or during the war. He participated in the battles of Shiloh, Resaca, Corinth, Chickamauga, and through the Atlanta campaign, and in the battle of Perryville. He received his discharge at Indianapolis, October 4, 1864, after serving in the defense of his country over three years. On returning home he engaged in farming which he has since followed. He was married in January, 1865, in Franklin County, to Miss Susannah Hayward a daughter of Joseph Hayward, who is now deceased. Mrs. Hayward, mother of Mrs. Masters still lives in Franklin County. Mr. Masters came to Rossville, Clinton County, in March, 1865, buying 160 acres adjoining the town where he still lives, but has since disposed of about fifty acres. He has erected a fine residence on his place, which is both comfortable and commodious, and has made other substantial improvements, and has now one of the finest places in his neighborhood. He subsequently bought twenty acres of land from Alfred Snyder. He is an enterprising farmer and a public-spirited citizen, being respected by all who know him. He is a member of the Methodist Episcopal church. He is a comrade of Rossville Post, No. 53, G. A. R. In politics he is a Republican. In the spring of 1884 he was elected trustee of Ross Township, which office he filled satisfactorily for two years.

JACOB ~~JOHN~~ B. METZGER, a farmer and stock-raiser, residing on section 33, Ross Township, was born in Montgomery County, Ohio, April 19, 1850, a son of Samuel S. and Lizza (Bowers) Metzger, the father a native of Ohio, born in 1828, and the mother, born in Rockingham County, Virginia, in 1831. They were married near Dayton, Ohio, in 1849, and to them were born three children—Jacob B., the subject of this sketch; Aaron C. M., living in Madison Township, and Levi H. M., in Ross Township. They came with their family to Clinton County, Indiana, in 1859, and settled on the farm in Ross Township where the parents still reside. Jacob Metzger was about nine years old when he accompanied his parents to Clinton County, and his education was received at the common schools of the county. He was reared a farmer and has always followed agricultural pursuits, and has now a good farm located near his father's old homestead in Ross Township. Mr. Metzger was united in marriage near Rossville, January 31, 1869, to Miss Esther Metzger, who was born January 16, 1852, a daughter of Samuel and Hannah (Shively) Metzger, both of whom died in Clinton County. To this union were born five children—Emanuel E., born October 27, 1869, is attending Ashland College, at Ashland, Ohio; Irvin I., born September 21, 1873; Vernon, born September 9, 1879; Artus, born April 9, 1881, and Daisy J., born January 17, 1884. In their religious faith Mr. and Mrs. Metzger believe in the doctrines of the United Brethren denomination.

ELIZABETH (METZGER) NEHER, a resident of Ross Township, living on section 33, was born in Montgomery County, Ohio, November 21, 1844, and was reared and educated in her native State. At the age of sixteen years she came with her father's family to Clinton County, they locating in Ross Township, where she was married November 23, 1862, to Joseph D. Neher, who was born and reared in Ross Township, the date of his birth being September 20, 1840. He was by occupation a farmer and carpenter, although the last five years of his life were devoted to the ministerial work of the German Baptist church. His life was one of success, and at his death left the home farm containing 100 acres of land, beside other property. According to his will his real and personal property is for his widow during her life, and at her death to descend to their children. He attended the common schools of the county in his youth, receiving such education as they afforded, but in after life, by diligence and self study, he became a well-informed man, and had in his library a collection of the very best books published. Mr. Neher affiliated with no political party and never cast a vote in his life. He died October 2, 1883, his death being a source of universal regret throughout the county. He was a kind and affectionate husband and father, a good neighbor, and an honorable and upright citizen. He was always ready to assist those in need, and comfort those in affliction, and was always ready to help in any enterprise which he deemed for the benefit of his people, church or county. To Mr. and Mrs. Neher were born ten children—Susan (wife of Albert Stewart, living near La Fayette); Samuel S., Amos A., Levi L., Anna, Ida, Lucy (died September 4, 1877, aged eighteen months), Ezra, Louisa and Catherine. Daniel Neher, father of Joseph D. Neher, was born in Rockingham County, Virginia, in 1813. When a young man he came to Clinton County, Indiana, where he married Mary Metzger and to this union were born five children. In 1871 he removed to Marion County, Illinois, where he resided till his death. He united with the German Baptist church when a boy and for thirty-five years was a minister of that denomination, and preached his last sermon February 6, 1881. His sons became ministers of the same denomination. Mrs. Neher's parents, Samuel and Hannah (Shively) Metzger, were natives of Ohio, of German descent. They were married in 1836, and were the parents of seven children—Elizabeth, whose name heads this sketch; John S., deceased; Susan; Esther, wife of Jacob B. Metzger; Catherine, wife of Aaron Metzger; Mary, wife of William Beydler, and Anna, wife of William Metzger. They came to Clinton County, Indiana, in 1860 and settled in Ross Township, where both died, the father in December 8, 18~~80~~79, and the mother January 4, 1872. They were members of the German Baptist denomination.

H. C. Perrin, farmer and stock-raiser, section 21, Ross Township, was born in Belford County, Virginia, January 25, 1816, a son of Solomon and Sarah (Botts) Perrin, his father a native of Connecticut, and his mother of Botetourt County, Virginia. His father died of cholera in New Orleans in 1833, and his mother in her native county in Virginia. In the spring of 1845 our subject went to Kentucky and lived in Bracken County a few months, when in July of the same year he came to Clinton County, Indiana, being persuaded to change his location by his brother William. He first settled near the Oxford church, renting land with his brother a year and then went to Rossville, and with his brother and John Ryhan ran a tobacco factory three years. This not proving profitable he bought eighty acres of land on section 29, Ross Township, and afterward added thirty acres, joining it on the east. He lived there ten years, when he sold his farm to Samuel Weeks and bought the one where he now lives. One hundred and twenty acres had been cleared and a story and a half log house and a log barn had been built. The house had been weather boarded and was comfortable and he made it his home until it was burned in 1861. He immediately went to work to build and erected a part of his present residence and has since added the upright part. He removed his log barn and now has one of the finest in the township. It is sixty feet square, with underground stable. His cow stable is 13 x 50 feet; horse stable, 18 x 50 feet; feed room, 9 x 50 feet, and wagon shed, 17 x 50 feet, and his storage room has the capacity for holding 1,300 bushels of wheat in the straw. He feeds from six to eight car-loads of hogs a year. He raises about 1,500 bushels of corn a year and 1,000 bushels of wheat, and in addition to this buys considerable corn for his stock. Mr. Perrin was married September 23, 1844, to Susan Secrist, who was born in Botetourt County, Virginia, November 23, 1818, a daughter of David and Mary (Flory) Secrist, her father a native of Pennsylvania and her mother of Virginia. They have had a family of seven children—Eliza, born September 23, 1844, is the wife of James Coulter; Byron A., born January, 1847, died July 9, 1848; Charles, born September 23, 1848, died May 24, 1863; Mary J., born February 23, 1850, is the widow of Samuel Hurley, who was killed at Danville, Illinois, in 1882; Sarah M., born May 7, 1854, is the wife of Milton Hoffman; Harriet E., born August 15, 1855, is the wife of Isaac Herlocker; Emma, born May 10, 1859, is the wife of Amos Taylor. Politically Mr. Perrin is a Republican. He and his wife are members of the Presbyterian church.

George Smith, of Rossville, retired member of the mercantile firm of Smith, White & Smith, was born in Rossville, Clinton County, Indiana, January 17, 1848, a son of John H. and Ann Smith. He was educated at the graded school at Rossville, and by diligence and private study he received a good knowledge of the common branches. He lived with his parents till twenty-three years of age when he began life on his own account, going to Newton County, were he engaged in farming on the old home farm. He was subsequently employed in his brother's store as clerk for six months, and in February, 1874, he became associated in the dry-goods business with his brother, H. L. Smith, which partnership continued for three years. He then formed a partnership with his younger brother, John A. Smith, with whom he carried on business for six years under the firm name of George Smith & Brother, when H. L. Smith was admitted to the firm, the name being then changed to Smith Brothers. Shortly afterward the younger brother retired from the business when M. B. White was admitted, the business then being conducted under the firm name of Smith, White & Smith for three years, when George Smith retired. He then purchased the entire hardware stock of the firm which he sold to C. M. Shagley a few months later. Mr. Smith was married May 3, 1877, to Nora Rose, a daughter of Rev. Uriah Rose, who died in December, 1885. Her mother is still living, making her home in Frankfort. Mr. and Mrs. Smith have three children—Ralph J., born April 29, 1878; George Adrian, born September 29, 1880, and Frank E., born April 6, 1883. In his political views Mr. Smith is a Democrat. In 1880 he was elected trustee of Ross Township and re-elected to the same office in 1882 without opposi-

According to Don Bowman of Brookville, Ohio, Mary (Butterbaugh) Metzger is buried in the Old Stephen Ulrich Cemetery, Madison Twp., Montgomery Co., Ohio. It has recently been bull-dozed over.

They were married in Bedford Co., Pa. and lived there until about 1811 or 1812. They then moved to Montgomery County, Ohio and evidently lived in that county until after Mary's death in 1852, and then some time after this Jacob Metzger moved to Kosciusko County, Indiana and lived there the rest of his life.

JOHN METZGER, son of Jacob and Mary Butterbaugh Metzger, was born in Blair County, Pennsylvania, December 20, 1807. When he was twelve years old he moved near Dayton, Ohio, with his parents. On July 31, 1828, he was married to Hannah Ulrey in Montgomery County, Ohio; soon after their marriage they were both baptized. In 1834 they moved to Tippecanoe County, Indiana. In 1835 he was elected to the ministry and in 1843 was ordained as an elder. He moved near Cerro Gordo, Illinois, in 1861 and devoted much of his time to preaching. He went for miles to fill appointments in localities where there were but few members, making most of these trips on horseback; sometimes he would walk rather than disappoint a congregation. Through his preaching hundreds of people came into the church. He could fluently read and speak both German and English. Sometimes he would preach in English about forty minutes, then excuse himself to the English part of the congregation and preach in German. He was the moderator of the district meeting of Southern Illinois for fifteen years, served on many district committees, and was a member of the Standing Committee sixteen times. In 1878 he built a meetinghouse in Cerro Gordo at his own expense, and, in 1881, moved from the farm into Cerro Gordo. His second marriage was to Permelia Wolfe in 1889. While his residence was maintained in Cerro Gordo, the late winters of his life were spent at La Verne, California. He had preached in nearly all the principal cities between the Atlantic and the Pacific. He died in Cerro Gordo, on May 25, 1896.

said that the Lord had given him his voice, and he would have to use it. He was a good writer, too. He was a regular contributor to several of the papers that were then springing up. He was aggressive in every good work, and yet was considered quite a safe counselor. He was a member of the Standing Committee in 1863 and 1868. He believed that the Lord would bless every good work, whether in the Church of the Brethren or not. He encouraged education and took great interest in Salem College when it was started at Bourbon in 1870. He was one of the first to hold children's meetings. The children were always anxious to hear "grandpa."

He died at Bloomingdale October 11, 1880, in his 78th year. His wife died in 1897, aged 83.

PETER LONG

Peter Long was a native of Somerset County, Pennsylvania. While yet a boy he moved with his parents to Holmes County, Ohio, where he grew to manhood. He married Sarah Kaub. About 1860 he was called to the ministry. In 1863 he and eight others moved to Lagrange County, Indiana. He became a leading factor in the building up of the English Prairie church. He donated the ground both for the meetinghouse and cemetery. He was ordained to the eldership about 1878 and was presiding bishop of English Prairie congregation thirty years. He became active in the work of the District, serving as a member of the Standing Committee one year. After the death of his first wife he was married to a daughter of Elder Abraham L. Neff. He died April 20, 1908, in his 77th year. His son-in-law, Noah M. Shutt, succeeded him to the eldership.

JOHN METZGER

Elder John Metzger was born in Blair County, Pennsylvania, December 20, 1807. His grandparents had emigrated in 1758 from Holland to Baltimore, where they were sold for several years' service to pay for their passage across the Atlantic. When John was 12 years old his parents moved to Dayton, Ohio. Here he married Hannah Ulrey in 1828. Soon after this both of them joined the Church of the Brethren.

In 1834 they moved to Tippecanoe County, Indiana. They were among the early settlers and among the first members of what is now the Pyrmont church.

In 1835 he was called to the ministry. He preached his first sermon to an audience of six persons in a sawmill. From this time on he was faithful and active in the service. There was much to be done among the early pioneers. He had many thrilling experiences in his early work. Frequently he was threatened by angry, wicked men whose wives had been brought to the church by Uncle John's preaching.

In 1843 he was ordained to the eldership. When the Wild Cat congregation was divided Elder Metzger became presiding bishop of the south part, known as Middle Fork, now Rossville. He continued in the oversight until he moved to Cerro Gordo, Illinois, in 1861. During his years of service in Indiana he became one of the best known men in the State and in the Brotherhood. He went far and near, preaching. He was a familiar person in many Indiana homes and congregations. He represented Indiana six times on the Standing Committee and served in this capacity many times after he had moved farther west.

In Illinois he was just as active in the Lord's work. Often would he make trips back to his Indiana home, preaching at many places on the way. He always attended Annual Meetings, paying his own expenses, whether delegate or not. The Lord prospered him financially but he returned a good portion. In 1878 he built at his own expense a house of worship at Cerro Gordo.

In 1887 his aged wife died, and two years later he married Sister Parmelia Wolfe, the widowed daughter-in-law of Elder George Wolfe. In 1890 they moved to Lordsburg, California. Here he spent his last years peacefully. He engaged in planting a fruit orchard and was interested in the Lordsburg College. He gave his last address at the District Meeting of California in March, 1896. Shortly after this he made one more journey across the Rocky Mountains, to his old home at Cerro Gordo. Here on May 25, 1896, surrounded by his family, he peacefully fell asleep. Thus ended the noble life of one who had served the church for sixty-one years in the ministry, had been on eighteen Standing Committees, had acted on dozens of committees sent to all parts of the Brotherhood, and had traveled thousands of miles to tell the sweet story of the cross. By his unselfish labors hundreds had been brought into the fold of Jesus Christ.

His son, John W. Metzger, was called to the ministry in the Middle Fork church. He too served as elder of the Middle Fork church for many years. He later moved to Lordsburg, California, where he died a few years after his father's death.

Elder John Metzger was related more or less closely to the many Metzgers in Clinton County. He had two brothers who settled in Kosciusko County, in the Eel River church. One of them, Elder Jacob Metzger, was a leader in the Old Order movement.

Uncle John Metzger worked hard for peace and unity in the church. He was much loved by all who knew him because of his earnest Christian character. An interesting story of his life has been written by M. M. Eshelman, from whose account the data for this sketch was secured.

DAVID METZLER

David Metzler is a native of Elkhart County and was raised in the Mennonite faith. He joined the Church of the Brethren in 1898. He was elected to the ministry in the Nappanee congregation March 30, 1899. One year later he was advanced. In 1902 he was ordained to the eldership and at once given charge of the Nappanee congregation. He has been the presiding elder most of the time since, except for two years spent as pastor at Rossville, Indiana. He was married to Lucinda Hollaway in 1890. They have two sons and one daughter living. For two years they temporarily resided at North Manchester, that their sons might have the advantages of the college. Brother Metzler is devoting nearly all his time to evangelistic work. He excels in doctrinal preaching and has few equals in presenting in plain, interesting manner the fundamental doctrines of the Christian religion. He is one of the leaders in his District, and is interested in every activity of the church. He has served on the District Mission Board and many other important committees both for District and Annual Meetings. He has represented his District three times on the Standing Committee.

~~came widely known all over the Brotherhood as an author and preacher of great ability. He was elected to the ministry and ordained to the eldership while yet a young man. He became the owner of a large farm and was very successful in all his business transactions. Here in his commodious, picturesque, southern home he entertained hundreds of brethren who always enjoyed his hospitality and the charm of his extraordinary conversational powers. He built up a large congregation over which he presided with rare skill and firmness. He was cool and level-headed in all circumstances in life. Like Elder John Kline, he opposed slavery, secession and war. His life was in much danger during the rebellion, but he so conducted himself that after the conflict was over he had the respect of both parties. He was instrumental in getting the Confederate Congress to exempt the Brethren from military duty on payment of five hundred dollars.~~

~~He was prominent in the Annual Meeting, serving on the Standing Committee seven times. He served on some of the most important committees ever appointed by Annual Meeting. In later years he was familiarly known everywhere as "Father Moomaw." He wrote much for the church periodicals on various subjects. He once held a debate by letter with a Rev. Jackson, on the subject of baptism. In this debate he had the unusual success of converting his opponent and baptizing him into the Church of the Brethren. Another one of his books, "The Divinity of Christ," grew out of the question, "What Think Ye of Christ?" put to him~~

~~by a young man who could not accept the divinity of Christ. He devoted his last hours to reminiscences of his church work and telling of the blessings with which God had crowned his days. He told his family that he was going to the grave with the same satisfaction that he went to hear a sermon on a pleasant day.~~

ELDER JOHN METZGER.

Elder John Metzger was born in Blair County, Pa., Dec. 20, 1807. His grandparents had emigrated from Holland to Baltimore in 1758, where each was sold for several years' service to pay for their passage across the Atlantic. When John was twelve years old his parents moved to Dayton, Ohio. Here he married Hannah Ulrey, in 1828, and soon after this both of them joined the Church of the Brethren. In 1834 they moved to Tippecanoe County, Ind., where he was elected to the ministry in the next year. He saw that the harvest was great but the laborers indeed were few. He preached his first sermon in a sawmill. He had varied experiences in preaching to the hardy pioneers, but the Lord blessed his work and many were brought into the church.

He was ordained to the eldership in 1843. After 1848 he seldom missed an Annual Meeting, always paying his own expenses and preaching at many places, both going and coming. About 1860 he moved to Cerro Gordo, Ill. He called upon Abraham Lincoln at Springfield just before the President-elect started for Washington. He continued his ministerial work in his new home with unabated zeal and often went back to his old Indiana home, preaching at many places along the way. It is said that he preached in at least twenty different States. Through his efforts many members were brought to the church in St. Louis.

Though he started poor in life, and always sacrificed his own interests to those of the church, yet the Lord blessed him in temporal things, a due part of which he returned to the Giver. In 1878 he built a house of worship at Cerro Gordo, Ill. Elder R. H. Miller dedicated it to the service of God.

In 1887 his aged wife died and two years later he married sister Parmelia Wolfe, the widowed daughter-in-law of Elder George Wolfe. In 1890 they moved to Lordsburg, Cal. Here he spent his last years peacefully. He engaged in planting a fruit orchard and was interested in the Lordsburg College. He gave his last address at the district meeting of California, in March, 1896. Shortly after this he made one more journey across the Rocky Mountains, to his old home at Cerro Gordo. Here on May 25, 1896, surrounded by his family, he peacefully fell asleep. Thus ended the noble life of one who had served the church for sixty-one years in the ministry, had been on eighteen Standing Committees, had acted on dozens of committees sent to all parts of the Brotherhood and had traveled thousands of miles to tell the sweet story of the cross. By his unselfish labors hundreds had been brought into the fold of Jesus Christ.

ELDER D. P. SAYLOR.

~~Elder Daniel P. Saylor was born near Beaver Dam, Frederick County, Md., June 23, 1811. His great-grandfather, Daniel P., was a native of Switzerland. His grandfather, Elder Daniel Saylor, and his uncle, Elder Jacob Saylor, were both able men in the church. Brother Saylor was baptized in 1837 and three years later was elected to the ministry, in the same year his grandfather died. It is said that when he was elected he became angry and said that the church evidently lacked judgment, because he was unqualified and could never preach. However, he thought the matter over seriously and through the encouragement of Elder Price, he finally accepted the work.~~

~~He was soon and very unexpectedly put to work by the old brethren insisting on his preaching the funeral of a child. From the words, "I am the resurrection and the life," he preached such an eloquent discourse that every one was astonished. The news spread rapidly and soon he had many calls for preaching in all the surrounding country. The effectiveness of his work can best be judged by the fact that in 1842, inside of three months, ninety-two persons were baptized in the Beaver Dam church and the old meetinghouse had to be enlarged.~~

~~In this year he was advanced to the second degree of the ministry and was ordained to the eldership on May 7, 1850. His work among the churches was so great that only a man of his strong physical build could have endured the stress. On horse-~~

Uncle John Metzger 76.8.3

From the day the first group of our people from Europe entered upon their work in Germantown, Pa., to the present we have had among us many interesting preachers, some of them exceedingly interesting. It would take a large book to tell the story of even half of them. By some dispensation of providence, beyond human comprehension, these unique characters were assigned their places in the endless file of moving events. They played their parts in the great drama of history, leaving it to other generations to recount their labors of love and devotion. In this chapter we are to tell the story of a man of God whose history, if written by one possessing the " tongues of men and of angels " might be made more interesting than a most fascinating romance.

Long years ago, 1758, it is said that from Holland there came to Pennsylvania a young husband and wife unable to pay their fare for the Atlantic voyage. As the laws then permitted, these two young people were sold to different parties for a time equal in value to the cost of their ocean trip. After serving out their time they were then free, and happy as larks. They made their way into the interior of the State, worked, saved and raised a family. December 20, 1807, in Blair County, there was born a grandson, whose name was entered in the old family Bible as John Metzger. In 1819, when John was twelve years old, his parents located near Dayton, Ohio, at that time a small village. When twenty-one years old John took to himself a wife in the person of Hannah Ulery. A little later they both entered the Church of the Brethren by confession and baptism. In 1834 they moved to Tippecanoe County, Ind., and the next year, when John was twenty-eight years old, he was called to the ministry. His schooling was scant, very much so. In those pioneer days schools were few. In raising a family it was not so much a matter of educating the boys and girls as producing enough for them to eat and wear. However, John during his teens learned to read and do some writing. He knew a little about arithmetic, but nothing about grammar, geography or history. To his credit he could read and speak both the German and the English, one about as well as the other. But unlike some preachers we meet with now and then, he had the preaching spirit in the superlative degree, and with the Bible open before him he felt that there was a place in the world for him, and that God being his Helper he was going to find it.

His first preaching service was in a sawmill and there were just six persons present to hear his maiden sermon. For him in a thinly settled community that was a good beginning. Having six people than one behind already. It was a blessing to have associated with such a man.

In 1819, when John was twelve years old, his parents located near Dayton, Ohio, at that time a small village. When twenty-one years old John took to himself a wife in the person of Hannah Ulery. The first preaching service [illegible] is a [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]. The [illegible] of a [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] and a good beginning. Having no people to tell the neighbors about the sermon meant a much larger congregation at the next service. It was not long until we hear of his preaching in different parts of the State. He went for miles to fill appointments in localities where there were but few members, making most of his trips on horseback but sometimes, when the roads through the dense forest were almost impassable even for a horse, he would walk rather than disappoint a congregation. Now and then, on reaching a stream overflowing to its banks, he would remove all his clothes, tie them into a bundle with his Bible in the pack, and hold the bundle high above his head, while wading the stream, the water often coming up to his neck. On the other side he would dress and go on his way rejoicing.

Everywhere he went the people heard him gladly, for they looked upon him as a man of God with a message. Under his marvelous preaching men and women were converted and baptized regardless of weather conditions. With him conversion was not a mere matter of joining the church. It was a matter of salvation and to neglect it meant condemnation and eternal separation from God. It was in this sense that he preached the Gospel and he made those who listened to him feel that there was something in the act of turning to God. In those days there were ungodly men who presumed to dictate as to whether their wives should join certain churches. A few of these rough characters threatened Bro. Metzger with bodily injuries if he attempted to baptize their wives. With such he would try to reason, but most of them remained obstinate, and would not listen to reason. Under such circumstances our pioneer John the Baptist, so to speak, would unhesitatingly do his duty, and proceeded to baptize all who demanded the sacred and initiatory rite, though some of it was done in the very face of threats.

In 1842 he was ordained to the eldership and six years later moved to Clinton County, Ind. Seeing the need of a more suitable place for meetings than small uncomfortable schoolhouses, he built for his residence a log house twenty-five by forty feet, so arranged that part of it could be used for preaching services. After collecting the logs, about eighty in number, he drove, in the winter, one hundred miles to purchase the needed hardware for his building. The house once ready he announced services and the people coming from every direction easily filled the chapel part and the large porch besides. Here a church was organized and he broadened out still more and more in his work. Wishing to take up work in a still larger field, in 1861 he located near Cerro Gordo, Piatt County, Ill., where a large and influential congregation soon came into existence. While looking after his well cultivated farm and his flourishing congregation he preached and traveled extensively in Illinois and Indiana, and even in other states. In their covered buggy he and his wife made many trips to Tippecanoe, Ind., and it is said that he preached in every schoolhouse between the two points, more than a hundred miles apart.

On one of these trips he heard that two members of the church, Geo. Dilling and wife, lived a short distance east of Urbana, Champaign County, Ill. With a pilot to guide him through the woods late at night, he located the Dilling family, left an appointment for one month later, was on hand for the appointed date, preached to a large assembly and was so impressed with the conditions that he kept up meetings regularly and in a short time had members enough to organize what was then known as the Urbana church, the church in which your humble servant was, in 1869, called to the ministry. This is characteristic of his method. He went everywhere preaching the gospel and probably preached at more points in Illinois and Indiana than any other man of his generation.

In some ways Eld. John Metzger, or Johnny Metzger, as people generally spoke of him, was a remarkable man. The Brotherhood never had another preacher just like him. He had a personality all his own, and an ideal personality it was. He was a well built man, possessing a fine face, always beaming with love and cheerfulness. His eyes were sparkling, his face large, complexion fair, and his hair as black as a raven, and just wavy enough to make him attractive. His voice was strong, well modulated, at all times under control and on still evenings could be heard a mile distant. Many times he was heard quite distinctly for several hundred yards. When thoroughly warmed up in a discourse he had a way of gracefully swinging his head so as to cause his long black locks to seem fairly alive as they swept to and fro in the air. All this seemed wholly befitting the man and his message. When he had before him a mixed assembly he would sometimes preach about forty minutes, then excuse himself to the English part of the congregation and say that he must now preach some in German. This he would do with the same grace, efficiency and power displayed in his first discourse. Those who understood both tongues said that he could talk as fluently in one language as in the other.

There was a great demand for his preaching. He was called on for many funerals and many were the marriages he solemnized. If the bridegroom offered him money for the services he accepted it politely, and then on giving the bride good-by would place it in her hand and give her and her husband a parting blessing.

Under his preaching hundreds of people came to the church and demanded baptism at his hands. But how is it, some one is ready to ask, that a man without even a common school education could exert such an influence over the public? With

Eld. Metzger there were several things that more than made up for his lack of schooling. He was a thoroughly converted man. It could be seen that he was a thoroughgoing believer in the doctrines and claims of the church as he had accepted them, and that he lived as he preached. Probably his great strength was in his marvelous spontaneity, ability to act intelligently, to the boiling over point, on the spur of the moment. His flashes of thought, in the sweep of his native oratory, almost like flashes of lightning and peals of thunder, gave to such preachers as John Umstead, John Metzger and others of the past generations, a power that can be acquired at no seat of learning. It has well been said that spontaneity can not be worked out at the office desk or in the studio. It must be generated on the spot, and to the men of proper native qualifications it will come, regardless of education, with Pentecostal power. And in this connection it is as good a time as any to say that it makes little difference what be the future educational standards for Brethren ministers, there will always be plenty of room for preachers of the Johnny Metzger type. Any devout man of creditable ability, with even an ordinary education, full of the preaching spirit, and able to provide for himself and family, will never need to want for an appreciative congregation. There is room in the United States and Canada for a thousand men of this type and we would be glad to welcome a full dozen of them to help feed and care for the groups of members in Florida, who are not yet in a position to support a regular pastor.

While Bro. Metzger devoted much of his time to preaching, all at his own expense, and was away from home a great deal, still he accumulated property and possessed ample means for the support of himself and family. All at his own expense he built for his people a church in Cerro Gordo. He devoted time and money to building up a church in St. Louis, first by working himself into the good graces of the people, by meeting with the Salvation Army workers and often speaking in their meetings. He thought the Brethren ought to be represented in this great city and employed a bit of strategy in order to get a foothold. He never considered a town, city or community overchurched when there was in it no church, like the Brethren, standing for the whole Gospel for the whole world. He often visited prisons and preached to the inmates. He called on President Lincoln and told him that he had been on the farm that he helped clear, and where he split some of his rails. He also visited President Harrison in the White House, telling him that he had often preached on the Tippecanoe battlefield where his grandfather defeated the Indians. He one time said that he had been in all the principal cities between the Atlantic Ocean and the Pacific Coast and had preached in nearly all of them.

In May, 1887, his wife died. Mentally speaking she was not a brilliant woman, but she was a good wife, an affectionate mother and a splendid home keeper. She saw to it that not a thing lay in the way of her husband doing his best as a preacher of the Gospel. About two years later he was married to Sister Permelia Wolfe, widow of Eld. David Wolfe of Adams County, Ill. David Wolfe, once a member of the state legislature, was the son of Eld. George Wolfe, of Far Western Brethren fame, of whom we have said much in the early chapters of this story. I once lived in the home of Aunt Permelia and to one of our Annual Meetings, more than forty years ago, she brought the neatly framed large photograph of Eld. George and made me a present of it. From this photograph have come all the pictures of Eld. Wolfe appearing in any of the Brethren publications. This framed photograph now occupies a place on the wall of my library and had the Brethren a permanent hall of fame, with space set apart for pictures of leading Brethren, this photo would in due time find its way to that hall.

By Conference appointment Bro. Metzger served on many committees, possibly dozens of them, and many times represented his District on the Standing Committee. He often served as moderator of the District Meeting of Southern Illinois. The late winters of his life were spent in Southern California. At La Verne he built a comfortable home for himself and Aunt Permelia. While maintaining his residence at Cerro Gordo he is said to have made fourteen trips to the Pacific Coast. By and by he finished his course, he had kept the faith, and May 25, 1896, aged eighty-eight and past, he was in the world no more. He had passed on and all that was mortal of him is at rest near his Illinois home.

I first met Bro. Metzger at the home of John Wolfe, a deacon and son of Eld. Geo. Wolfe, in Adams County, Ill., when I was about sixteen years old. As a young minister I was much in his company, often heard him preach, and while engaged in editorial work kept in close touch with him until near the close of his long and useful life. He was a blessing to humanity, and wherever he touched the earth he made it better and more beautiful.

Another person said Metzgers probably md each other in order to keep their money in the family - (Many inter-family marriages among all these families - not only Metzgers!)

The member of Leonard's family we now wish to consider is his youngest son, Emanuel. . . He was born March 23, 1874 on a portion of the land which, we believe, the 1829 land grant copy describes. On October 27, 1895, he was married to Eave Hufford, daughter of Joseph and Mary A. (Knerr or Knarr) Hufford of Clinton County, Indiana.

Eave was orphaned when just a small girl and so she and another young man, James Reavis, who also was an orphan, were kindly taken 38.4.3 into the home of Jacob P. and Eva Metzger. Jacob P. was a deacon in the Middle Fork Church for many years. He and six of his brothers were all childless and little Eave was a joy to this home. Here in this Brethren family she grew to adulthood and here on this same farm she and Emanuel reared their children.

It might be interesting to mention here that her father's family had been of the Brethren faith almost from its origin.

Her ancestor, Christian Hoffert, and in all probability, her fourth great-grandfather, came from Germany to Germantown, Pennsylvania with Alexander Mack in 1729. At her death in 1966, all of her children and all of her grandchildren had also embraced this faith. . . .

(Editor's note: other family histories touched upon in the book are Wenger and Denlinger.)

'Orphan Trains' Saved 100,000 Slum Kids From a Life of Hell

For 75 years, "orphan trains" carried homeless children from hellhole slums in New York City to new homes and a new life in the Midwest — saving some 100,000 children from a life of begging, stealing, and prostitution.

By FRANCE OWEN

From 1854 to as late as 1929, the trains carried carloads of children from town to town in the Midwest in search of good, Christian families who would take them in.

"We came out in a boxcar in the fall of 1893," recalled Ben Pippert, 86, a toddler in diapers when his father took him and his brothers and sisters to New York Children's Aid Society after their mother's death.

FOND MEMORIES
Ben Pippert was a baby when he rode orphan train back in 1893.

The Children's Aid Society put the children on an orphan train.

One stop on the train's schedule was Dysart, Iowa, where Ben and the others were taken to the town hall. Out of curiosity, Iowan Henry Pippert went to the town hall that day — although he didn't intend to adopt any children.

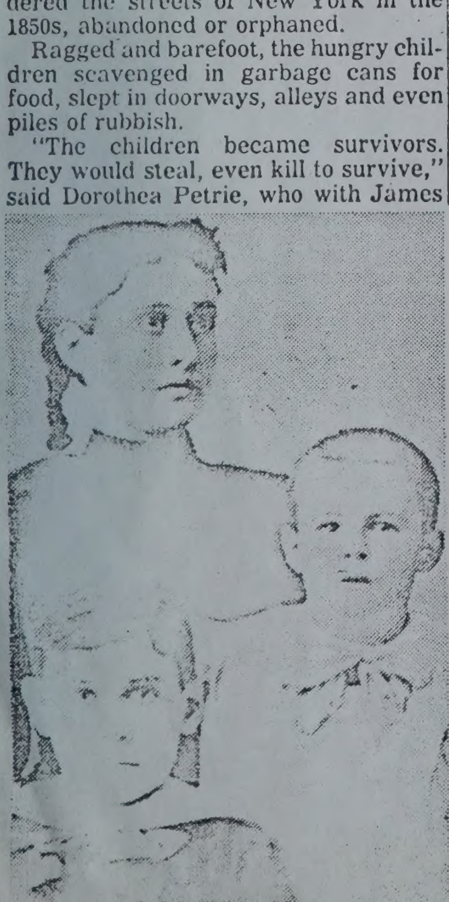
"He had a handlebar mustache just like my father," said Ben, who lives in Dysart today.

"I hollered, 'Dada!' He shouted, 'I will take that boy!' "

Some 30,000 homeless children wandered the streets of New York in the 1850s, abandoned or orphaned.

Ragged and barefoot, the hungry children scavenged in garbage cans for food, slept in doorways, alleys and even piles of rubbish.

"The children became survivors. They would steal, even kill to survive," said Dorothea Petrie, who with James Magnuson wrote the book "Orphan Train," and will produce it for a TV miniseries.



ADOPTED: Ben Pippert (right) poses with his sister Tresie and brother John a few years after they came to Dysart, Iowa, aboard the orphan train.

The solution to the problem, according to Rev. Charles Loring Brace, was immigration to good Christian homes in the country. Rev. Brace and others founded the Children's Aid Society in 1853. The response was amazing.

"Most touching of all was the crowd of wandering little ones who found their way to our office," Rev. Brace later wrote. "Ragged young girls who had nowhere to lay their heads; children driven from drunkards' homes; orphans who slept where they could find a box . . . whose incessant answer to our question, 'Where do you live?' rang in our ears, 'Don't live nowhere!' "

In September 1854, a band of immigrant children — 47 boys — were shipped west on the first orphan train.

"You can hardly imagine the delight of the children as they looked, many for the first time, upon country scenery," said the Rev. E.P. Smith, sent by the society to chaperone the first group west to Michigan.

"As we whirled through orchards loaded with large, red apples, their enthusiasm rose to the highest pitch. Arms stretched out, eyes swimming, mouths watering, and all screaming, 'Oh! Oh! Just look at 'em! Mister, be they any sich in Michigan? Then I'm for that place — three cheers for Michigan!' "

All 47 boys found homes in Michigan. Wherever the orphan trains stopped, the children stood around the platform or were taken to the town hall or church where townspeople would look them over . . . and hopefully adopt the eager children.

The orphan trains carried many children to a brilliant future.

One of them became a justice of the U.S. Supreme Court; four became judges; 35, lawyers; 2, district attorneys; 19, physicians; 18, journalists, and a number of the children who rode the orphan trains became business and professional men.

One orphan train that was puffing to Noblesville, Ind., in the summer of 1859 carried two boys who grew up to become governors, Andrew H. Burke of North Dakota and John Green Brady of the Alaska Territory.

Henry L. Jost, who rode the orphan cars in 1881 to Hopkins, Mo., became the "Orphan-Boy Mayor" of Kansas City and later became a congressman from Missouri. Capt. Maxwell Balfour of Tracr, Iowa, grew up to become a partner of J. Paul Getty, an air pioneer and hero of World War I, who was decorated by King George V of England.

Our pioneer spirit lives

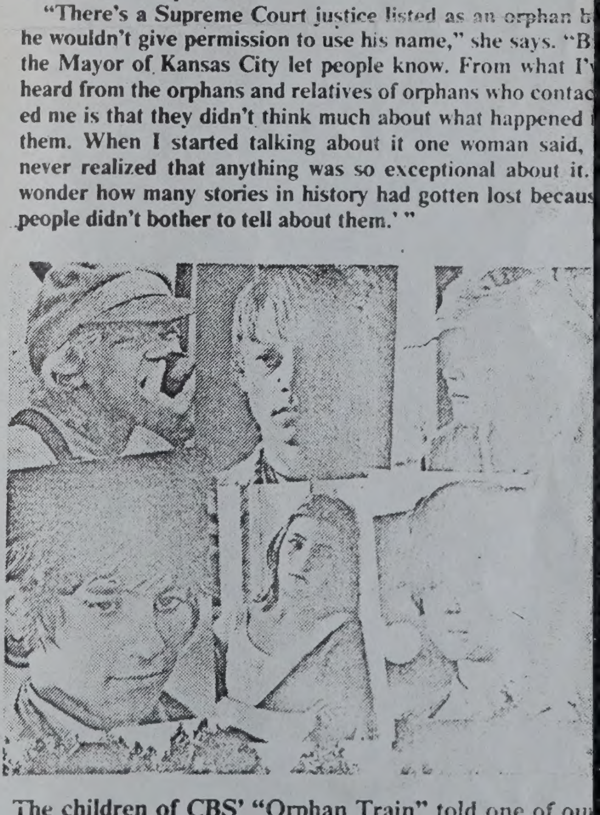
CHICAGO--Most television stories are fiction based o writer's imagination. Or, like "Roots," the stories are ficti based upon fact about people long dead.

Imagine meeting Kunta Kinte or someone who surviv the Holocaust. That's exactly the eerie exciting feeling t came with meeting 87-year-old Ben Morris Pippert. search of parents and a home, Pippert rode one of the orph trains which crossed our country in 1892. Viewers w watched CBS' recently aired three-hour TV movie "Orph Train," were probably surprised to discover one of the U. greatest pioneer tales.

Sprightly Ben Pippert, along with producer Doroth Petrie, described the numbers of homeless children tra ported by the Children's Aid Society from New York homes across the country from 1854 to 1929 as "in the hu dreds of thousands."

"There are hundreds of thousands of the orphans' relativ still living and hundreds of the real orphans," Petrie say "And the only way to find them is for them to contact you records were kept secret.

"There's a Supreme Court justice listed as an orphan b he wouldn't give permission to use his name," she says. "B the Mayor of Kansas City let people know. From what I' heard from the orphans and relatives of orphans who contac ed me is that they didn't think much about what happened them. When I started talking about it one woman said, never realized that anything was so exceptional about it. wonder how many stories in history had gotten lost becaus people didn't bother to tell about them.' "



The children of CBS' "Orphan Train" told one of ou country's best-kept secrets. Orphans and relatives o orphans are urged to contact this column in care o their local newspaper so their story can become part o historical research.

DEATH OF ELDER ANDREW NEHER

Eld. Andrew Neher was born in Clinton County, Ind., Sept. 15, 1838, and died Jan. 1, 1918, at his home in McCune, Kans., aged seventy-nine years, three months and sixteen days.

Elder Andrew Neher

He was married to Elizabeth Wolfe, Nov. 4, 1860. This union was blessed with three sons,—Levi D., Daniel P. and David D., all of whom survive. He also leaves his devoted wife, ten grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

He united with the Church of the Brethren at the age of nineteen, and was always a staunch adherent of her doctrines.

In June, 1869, he, with his family, emigrated to Marion County, Ill. Here he lived in the Romine congregation for fifteen years. Soon after locating in this community, he was elected to the ministry. Dec. 24, 1877, he was advanced to the second degree and given the eldership in April, 1882. In March, 1884, he moved to Cherokee County, Kans., and in 1894 to Crawford County, same State. He had charge of the Osage church until August, 1898, when he moved to North Dakota.

He helped to build the Salem church in North Dakota and gave it its present name. He was overseer of said church until his return to Kansas, in 1904, where he lived the remainder of his life.

Father had been in poor health for almost three years. During the last three months of his life he suffered intensely with cancer of the stomach. He was very patient and bore his affliction with Christian fortitude, often expressing his desire to pass over. A few days before his death, as we were all at his bedside, he talked to us about his departure. He told mother he was going and wished he could take her with him.

ELIZABETH NEHER DEAD

McCune Lady Passed Away Saturday Night From Heart Failure Following Injury.

Mrs. Elizabeth Neher passed away at her home on North Bennett Saturday night from heart failure caused by an injury she sustained when she fell at her home August 18. She was 80 years, 10 months and 13 days of age.

The funeral services were held from the home Monday afternoon at three o'clock, cnducted by L. G. Templeton, assisted by J. H. Burkholder, and burial took place in the Osage Brethren cemetery.

The deceased was born in Rossville, Ind. October 14, 1840, and her early life was spent in that state, where she gave her heart to God in her girlhood days. She was married to Andrew Neher November 4th, 1860, and to them three childrn, all of whom survive were born. They are: Levi of Mound City, Mo., Daniel of McCune and David of Redlands, California.

She always lived a devoted life, few being more conscientious than she. When she believed a thing to be right she stood firm for her convictions. She was known by both old and young as "Aunt Elizabeth."

For two weeks previous to her injury she had the happy privilege of having all three of her sons and a number of her grandchildren and great-grandchildren with her in her home. It was always the happiest moments of her life when she could have her children around her table, which was always loaded with good things prepared by her hands.

During her last illness she exercised unusual patience and Christian fortitude. Death to her had no horrors. She often expressed her desire to pass over and be with her Savior, and her husband who preceded here over three years ago.

She belonged to a family of eight children, only two of whom survive, Leonard Wolfe of McCune and Hannah Withers, of [illegible], Oregon. Besides these and her sons she leaves ten grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren and many other relatives and friends to mourn her departure.

She had been a resident of McCune for man years, and a faithful member of the Brethren church.

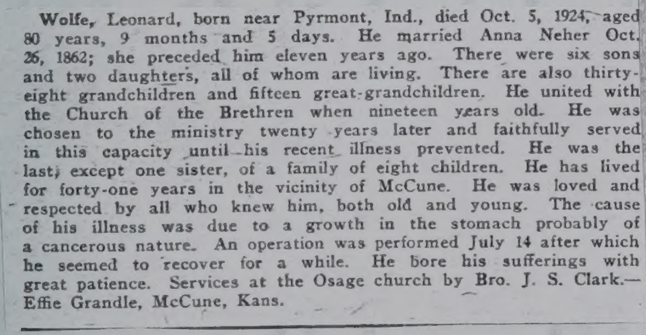
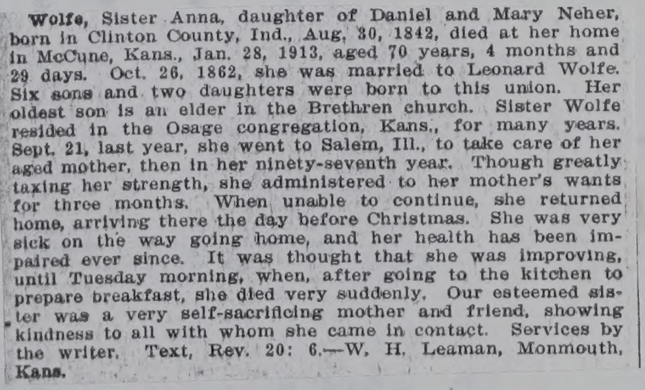
Leonard Wolfe and wife, Anna Neher, daughter of Daniel.



Wolfe, Leonard, born near Pyrmont, Ind., died Oct. 5, 1924, aged 80 years, 9 months and 5 days. He married Anna Neher Oct. 26, 1862; she preceded him eleven years ago. There were six sons and two daughters, all of whom are living. There are also thirty-eight grandchildren and fifteen great-grandchildren. He united with the Church of the Brethren when nineteen years old. He was chosen to the ministry twenty years later and faithfully served in this capacity until his recent illness prevented. He was the last, except one sister, of a family of eight children. He has lived for forty-one years in the vicinity of McCune. He was loved and respected by all who knew him, both old and young. The cause of his illness was due to a growth in the stomach probably of a cancerous nature. An operation was performed July 14 after which he seemed to recover for a while. He bore his sufferings with great patience. Services at the Osage church by Bro. J. S. Clark.—Effie Grandle, McCune, Kans.



Wolfe, Sister Anna, daughter of Daniel and Mary Neher, born in Clinton County, Ind., Aug. 30, 1842, died at her home in McCune, Kans., Jan. 28, 1913, aged 70 years, 4 months and 29 days. Oct. 26, 1862, she was married to Leonard Wolfe. Six sons and two daughters were born to this union. Her oldest son is an elder in the Brethren church. Sister Wolfe resided in the Osage congregation, Kans., for many years. Sept. 21, last year, she went to Salem, Ill., to take care of her aged mother, then in her ninety-seventh year. Though greatly taxing her strength, she administered to her mother's wants for three months. When unable to continue, she returned home, arriving there the day before Christmas. She was very sick on the way going home, and her health has been impaired ever since. It was thought that she was improving, until Tuesday morning, when, after going to the kitchen to prepare breakfast, she died very suddenly. Our esteemed sister was a very self-sacrificing mother and friend, showing kindness to all with whom she came in contact. Services by the writer. Text, Rev. 20: 6.—W. H. Leaman, Monmouth, Kans.

Dale and Gladys, Dear bro, & sister,

I received the booklet of the histry of the John F. Metzger family yesterday and I read it through last evning. If you will tell me the price I will gladly pay for it. I was so very glad for your letter Gladys. I wonder if you remember me visiting in your parents home, and one time there all night. I thing I visited there when you was still at home. I frequently visited in the Ben and Minnie Fisher home when your mother and sister Maud were still at home.

Ed and Henry Royer and my wife Malinda (Wolf) grew up togather in Stark Co. Ohio.

John F. Metzger and my mother were first cousins, Making Dale and I third cousins. I hope Dale boy and bury them in our cemetery here by our church. ~~Thae~~ This always seemd wrong to me. Just to remove them so as not to farm around the little plot seemed to me almost sin.

There is great grandfathers orignal tomb stone in German Andrew's son Jacob (Page 4) was my grandfather, who I rember very well. Jacob Married ~~Barbra~~ Mary Magdalene Polly Wolf. (No relation to my wife Malinda. They had one son Andrew and 4 daughters Elizabeth (Betsie) who married her first cousin Isaac Metzger, Mary (my mother) who married John Skiles, Esther who married Henry Keller Susie who married her first cousin Aaron Metzger. Jacob's first wife died when Susie was born. Jacob mother, Andrew's widow came and kept house for ~~to~~ her son Jacob and care for the children, Later Jacob Married Katy Saltzman. They had 3 daughters, Anna married David Skiles, Leah married Alex Wagoner, Malinda (a twin) who died in infancy) married John Yoder after he died she married Sol Hay, after he died she married John Cook,

All the above may not be of intrest to you, but mostly the death and removal of the grave of Andrew Metzger, Again I thank you for the booklet and for your letter Gladys,

Your bro. in Christ "Jakie"

Dale you dont mind. I dont.

It may be of intrest to you to know that the Andrew Metzger (on pag 4) who move to Clinton Co, Ind, was my great grand father. He with his family setteled on a farm 1½ mile South West of our Middle Fork church. Just ½ mile South of the old cemetry. Your mother Dale, can tell you where my uncle "Little" Dave Skiles lived, Here Andrew lived and died and was burried in a small family grave yard in the field just west of the present barn, I very well recall seeing this small grave yard of just a very few graves with a board fence around it. Later when this field fell into the hands of Alex Wagoner he hired "little" Isaac Metzger to dig up what he could find of the remains of these bodies and put them in a Spring-1875, Barbara & son Wm. traveled to Clinton Co. Ind. to visit dau. Mary. While there became ill with erysipiles on her face, with no specific drugs available it proved fatal. A kind neighbor who helped care for her also contracted the disease & died. With limited means of communication & transportation there was no way for Samuel to let the Huffords know when he & his dau. would arrive at Lafayette, Ind., so no one was there to meet the train. Consequently they walked the 17 miles over very muddy roads & were nearly exhausted when they arrived. Mary & David Hufford had 2 small children now, so they raised William, age7, along with their children. His sister also remained to help with the care of the children.

Written in winter of 1976 or 77

Dear Ruth - Sunday

At least I will start a note to you - M.E.'s grand children are in and out today so plans are indefinite! You likely know about that.

I was happy and pleased to receive your letter. I hope you have had no further storms and that you have more breathing space - snow a bit further from your door step! Yes, we read about the man near Mansfield, Ohio, trapped in his truck cab 6 days. It's a miracle that he survived.

A few days ago I received a letter from my cousin, Edna Hylton giving the word of the death of her brother Frank Replogle. I may have written you that he was terminally ill. He died Jan. 28th. This was in Lafayette Hospt. Edna was staying with his wife Florence. She wrote that a 2-day blizzard paralized Lafayette. They were unable to get to the hospt. from Tues. until Sat. the day Frank died. In fact no one was able to get there for his last hours. The service and burial which took place in Roseville could not be held until the following Wed. because of hazardous driving conditions! Getting into the cemetery - preparing the grave. The afternoon of Frank's funeral, Clara Metzger passed away. Edna sent one of the memorial leaflets which I am enclosing for you. Edna always visited Clara when she saw Frank. Clara was never able to speak - she wrote that once she thot Clara recognized her and tried to smile. I like to think that Frank made the journey and was on the reception comm. to welcome Clara.

No, Clara was not my first cousin as she was Edna's and Frank's. Their mother, Elizabeth Metzger Replogle was a sister of Clara's father, Harrison Metzger. Their father, Wm Replogle and my mother, Hannah Replogle Bricker were brother and sister. However, my mother told me that there was a distant relationship between Aunt Lizzie's line and our line. As we have so often learned, there was considerable intermarriage in those years. I'm sure my mother felt as your grandmother [illegible]

Now to genealogy business! The search thru newspapers in libraries, newspaper offices etc. Since all my problems are so distant I have not been able to search such possible sources. I did however make one effort. My grandmother Bucher died in 1902 in Roseville. I had the obituary clipping from the Roseville Paper of that date — that I knew. But where had I put it for safe keeping? I thot I had searched every cranny and crevice. I wrote to the Frankfort Public Library to inquire if they had a copy of that issue. Fortunately I had the paper from which the obituary had been clipped so I was specific as to date — volume etc. They replied that that issue was not in their files — Sorry. I learned later in class that in requesting a copy one should specify the entire sheet — also one might not get the date — especially the year. I have several clippings which were among my mother's things that have no dates which is frustrating. So, if you have opportunity to search in Delphi there could be one for my grandmother, however I really doubt the possibility for this reason.

In 1875 my maternal grandparents, Samuel and Barbara Replogle were living near Cerro Gordo, Macon Co. Ill. or possibly Piatt Co., Ill. In the spring of that year Barbara and the youngest child, William Replogle who was seven yrs. old came to Indiana to visit one of the daughters, Mary and David A. Hufford who lived 3 miles north of Roseville, just over the Carroll - Clinton Co. line. I've no idea as to whom you might know in that neighborhood so you can mentally locate the farm. Anyway the buildings have been gone many years. While there Barbara became critically ill. I'm sure it was an acute infection. My mother told me it was erysipilas on her face. With no specific drugs available, it proved fatal. A kindly neighbor helped care for her — she contracted the infection and also died. With the limited means of communication and transportation even if there was a newspaper in Delphi I doubt if there would have been an obituary — not being a pioneer settler. Certainly it would never have reached a Frankfort or Lafayette paper. To be sure, I can be mistaken and hope I am.

Incidentally, my mother who was 17 and her father traveled from Ill. to Lafayette by train.

Since there was no way to get word to the Huffords as to when they would reach Lafayette there was no one to meet them. They walked the 17 miles over what was a corduroy road, Imagine the mud in March! My mother said they were almost exhausted when they arrived. Barbara was buried in the Pleasant View Cemetery. Uncle Will stayed on with the Huffords who by that time had two small children. My grandfather returned to Ill. My mother stayed to help her sister with the care of Uncle Will. In Nov. of 1875 my mother and father were married and began their home at Edna Mills. When Will was a bit older he lived with them until he was old enough to be on his own, probably 15 or 16. Eventually my grandfather moved from Ill. to Missouri where he died in 1882. Osceola, Mo.

I wrote to the proper authorities at the Court House in Delphi requesting a copy of the death certificate. They replied - "None available". I also wrote to Montgomery Co. Ohio for her birth certificate - Reply - Vital records not recorded until much, much later. Imagine my surprise when I succeeded in getting a copy of the marriage certificate for Barbara and Samuel issued in 1842. This from Frankfort Court House. There are mortality records for certain years - I've not yet gone into that. So have seen Ruth in the Delphi Court House. ha. My instructor keeps reminding us, "Never give up."

All the Metzgers - Johns, Barbaras etc. are surely making my hair whiter! (Sorry, just re-filled my fountain pen).

Some time when you are discussing "Roots" with your father will you ask him if he knows who the brothers of Jacob (Jake) Metzger, were. Nora, his daughter was in our 1913 H. S. Class. Earlier they had lived S. W. of Rossville on the State Road, not far east of the Pleasant View Cemetery. By the time Nora was of H. S. age they moved to Rossville. Their home was on W. Main St. next to Loyal Fisher's home (I believe he still lives there). Nora's mother was Susan Gochenour. Nora and I were good friends and I quite often stayed over night with her. I knew that her father and my mother were related. I feel quite certain that they were first cousins, tho I can't prove it. Orville may know who his brothers were. I'm sure he knew "Jake" as we called him. They were not Old Order - rather Church of the Brethren.

This Jake Metzger is in the Spiles book

This is pertinent to my Bricker line - Thanks so much -

Mary Bricker was my first cousin. She was the daughter of Samuel Bricker, the oldest child of Benjamin and Elizabeth Bricker, my grandparents. Samuel married Sarah Hufford - they had 2 children - Mary and Benjamin. I had no dates for either. I knew both very well. Our families visited each other. I was not aware that there were children who must have died as infants for as long as I can remember there was Ben, Arthur and Paul. I shall always remember Levi - he was such a special person - quiet, soft, low voice, firm also. So kind. I just loved him. Cousin Mary was much younger - She was Old Order - not Levi. I think he was a brother of Aaron and Jacob B. who moved to Calif. in the late 90s. Samuel Bricker died in 1871. Sarah re-married a Yoder - from which union came most or all the Yoders you mention.

The Levi Metzger family sold their farm south of Rossville about 1912 or perhaps 13 and moved to near Huntington, Ind. Their address was Andrews - My parents and I also, sometimes visited them. They had a beautiful farm - the house was one that today would be a "historical landmark". All the above are deceased. (Metzgers)

So many of the names you list, I have heard my mother speak. My parents knew many of the Old Order families and others also, in the Middle Fork Community.

I have visited the Pleasant View Cemetery a number of times but not the Old Order cemetery but when I go back next time I plan to do the Old Order, etc. as you have done. I am wondering if the markings on the stones have weathered the years so they are readable.

Ruth - you likely are exhausted - I'll continue in next issue - ha. Keep the Cotterell letters as long as you wish. Thanks for all your efforts -

With love,
Mary Bricker

Ulery, Elizabeth A., was born at Camden, Ind. Nov. 17, 1847 and died Nov. 11, 1935, at Darlow, Kans. She married David G. Ulery of South Bend, Ind. To this union six sons were born, four of whom, with the father preceded her. She with her husband went to Kansas in 1885 settling in the bounds of the Osage church. She became a Christian in early life and united with the Church of the Brethren. She leaves her two sons, three brothers and a sister. Funeral services at Darlow by the writer and burial in the Pleasant View cemetery.—Chas A. Miller, Hutchinson, Kans.

From Mary Bricker's last letter: (Mary is a granddaughter of Samuel + Barbara (Metzger) Replogle

2! Isn't this precious? Imagine not seeing your sister + brother-in-law for 30 years; then have them come (unannounced) and stay for weeks.

Mary is a great granddaughter of Andrew Metzger + Mary Ulrich. She is ~~89~~ 88 years old. Will be 89 in July. Clara Cottrell is already 89.

are in those Ullery's records you have sent of those who went into Northern Ind.

David and Elizabeth lived most of their married life in Montana so they were strangers to me. My mother had not seen her sister "Liz" as she called her for more than 30 years. One Sunday afternoon in the fall of about 1911 or 12 a car drove down our lane to our house. In that year there were not many cars around Roseville so to see a car at our door steps, was indeed unexpected! Two people stepped out of the car! A man and woman! It was Aunt "Liz" and Uncle Dave Ullery from Montana! They arrived in Roseville by train unannounced so they hired Jim Neher who had a garage and sold Overland cars to bring them to our house. What excitement! They stayed several weeks visiting the Replogle and Metzger relatives. There were reunions - My mother had raised a few turkeys (unusual) that summer so for Thanksgiving one or more were roasted for a reunion dinner for the Ullerys, Wm. Replogle family at the Brickers! During that visit they went to South Bend to visit some of Uncle Dave's relatives.

Recently I got and idea as to how I may be able to get some data on the David + Eliz. U. family. At present a man, Mr. Eller - who is employed by the Board of Benevolence of the Evangelical Covenant Church, to counsel with residents of their Retirement Homes regarding financial matters, wills etc. His office is in Chicago. He visits their homes on the West Coast on the average of every month. At present he is working on a Trust Plan for me. On our last visit he told me he is a member of the Church of the Bretheran. Was once Administrator of their Hospt. in the Chicago area - he has been around.

When I have my next appointment with him
I will ask him if the Brethren Home at Darlow, Kas. is still in existance. My Aunt Elizabeth Ullery lived the last few yea of her life there and died there. They should have some records regarding her family etc
So, there is a possibility that some data may yet come to light. ! There are devious ways

Next - I must really pursue my Bricker line — find parents of Elizabeth and Benjamin! I know there are ways and I must pursue them. I have contact with Brickers in Franklin Co. Pa. who I know are relatives but they know no more than I as to who the parents of their g. grand parents were. I have a very strong feeling that their g. grand father was a brother of mine but to prove it! ! !
I long so much to go back to these relative
I'm in contact with and explore Cumberlan and Franklin counties, even Lancaster Co.
and across the line in Maryland. I remember my father saying that they use to go to Hagerstown, Md. to visit someone! Who! But — should I at 88?
even tho I feel 48 most of the time - ha.
I have the urge!

Ruth dear - you must be worn out by this time
How can I ever re-pay you for the help and inspiration you have given me - I never can
How much you have enriched my life.
I have to thank Orville for bringing us together.

I'm sure you have had a busy summer
Children and grand children have been with you. Soon with the opening of school you both will be back into routine -
I hope you keep well.

God bless and keep you. With love,

Mary Bricker

1-room school classmates enjoyed 1 more reunion

By KATHY SLAUGHTER
Times staff writer

One of 1986's first class reunions took place this week in Clinton County.

Although most will surpass it in attendance, few can match it for number of years — 73.

Mary Bricker and Frank Barnhart met Tuesday to share dinner and memories in honor of Rossville High School's Class of 1913. The two are the only remaining classmates from an original class of 19 students.

"A one-room school house was a unique experience," said Bricker, 92, of San Diego. "We missed many things, but on the whole, we learned the fundamentals. As far as I'm concerned, we did not miss much — (we learned) the things that were important.

"The curriculum was pretty much cut and dried. We had no electives — we simply took what was offered. I never felt math was my strong point, but I liked geography — I still do."

Memories of school days past kept the classmates busy Tuesday as they looked through materials kept by Barnhart, who now lives in the Pyrmont area.

Bricker's education began in a one-room school in northern Clinton County. For her final four years, she transferred to Rossville High School which also was a one-room schoolhouse.

"The school had students from Ross Township and the southern part of Clay Township," she said. "Most of the students walked to school; some rode in horse and buggy. Two or three students who lived nearby rode together.

"My parents lived about three miles from the school, so I lived in Rossville during the week, then went home for the weekends."

The length of the school year was shorter than today's standards although school normally started in September. "I remember we had commencement in early April," she said. "Most of the boys and girls were from farm families, and the boys especially were needed to help on the farms in the spring."

The Class of 1913 began its high school years with Mr. and Mrs. Mershon as administrators. "He was the superintendent and she was the principal," Bricker said. "We had two other teachers including Ruth Howe Tedford, who later taught in Frankfort."

At 19, Bricker was one of the oldest graduates in the class. "In the one-room schools, age didn't seem important," she said. "In our class, there was an age range of 4 or 5 years. One winter, our family went west which disrupted my school year and put me a year older than others."

Despite a lack of women coeds during the 1910s, Bricker continued her education at Ashland College in Ohio where she got her bachelor's degree. She then attended Presbyterian Hospital's School of Nursing in Chicago.

Upon completion there, she traveled to India where she was a missionary during the 1920s. She returned to the United States in 1928 and pursued a career in public health nursing in Michigan.

Upon retirement in 1958, she moved to California where she has some relatives. On this visit home, she brought along items she believed would have more value to Clinton County residents. Among them was a handmade quilt she left with Ruth Igney, one of several friends she visited in the past week. She has asked Igney to find a permanent home for the quilt which was given to her by the Rossville Methodist Episcopal Church women when she left for her mission to India.

"I don't come home in between times, but once each five years, I come back for our high school reunion," she said. "We had our 20th class reunion then our 50th, then we met every five years. After the 65th, we lost several members."

About four years ago, Bricker, Barnhart and Edith Dorsey were the only classmembers. Dorsey, who lived in Frankfort, and Barnhart got together once a year to celebrate their class reunion, then would send letters to Bricker.

"Then about 1½ years ago, Edith died, and I felt we had to carry on that tradition," said Bricker.

MARY ELIZABETH BRICKER
1893 - 2001

On July 20, 1893, Mary Elizabeth Bricker was born on her parent's farm near Rossville, Indiana. John and Hannah Bricker welcomed their daughter into the existing family of two sons, Charles and Harry Bricker. Her early years were spent at her mother's side, learning the fine arts of cooking, baking, sewing, knitting, and gardening. She excelled in all of these, and everyone who knew her benefited from her knowledge of these skills in years to come.

Mary was also a good academic student. After graduating from Rossville High School in 1913, she attended Ashland College in Ashland, Ohio, earning her BA in June 1918. She then attended the Presbyterian School of Nursing in Chicago and graduated with an RN degree.

From that time on, Mary's life would become one of service to her fellow man and a witness for her Christian faith. As a missionary, sponsored by the Methodist Church of Rossville, she traveled to India in 1923 where she was Head Nurse at the Sarah E. Creighton Memorial Hospital in Brindaban. She had great compassion for the Hindu people, especially the children. On Mary's 100th birthday, she received a letter from a woman whose father had brought her to Mary's hospital and given her into Mary's care. The woman said, "I am very grateful to you and to our God who put love in your heart for we orphan children in India. You sacrificed your nice days of life in looking after us and giving us worldly and spiritual food." Mary, with love in her heart, was always prepared to provide nourishment for both the body and the soul.

Before returning to the US in 1928, Mary traveled to the Philippines, Hong Kong, Singapore, Japan, and Korea. She enjoyed meeting people from other cultures and experiencing their lifestyles. She had a bit of gypsy in her soul and enjoyed traveling to all parts of the world during her lifetime, including England, Ireland and a special trip to the Holy Land which was a gift from her godson, Eric Davis, and his family after her retirement.

Benton Harbor, Michigan became her home after arriving back in the states in 1928. She took the position of Public Health Nurse for the Benton Harbor School District in 1930, remaining in that position for 28 years and completed her degree in Public Health at Western Reserve University. She was active in the St. Joseph District Nurses Association and did much to promote obtaining recruits for the nursing profession. In 1937 she chaired a Michigan State Nurses' convention for 500 nurses in Lansing.

When she retired, she accepted an invitation to live with her life-long friend, Mary Elsie Davis, in Solana Beach, CA. In 1959, Mary packed her belongings and moved West where she spent 20 years living in Mary Elsie's lovely home overlooking the Pacific Ocean. During this time, she enjoyed numerous camping trips that were especially memorable if there was a fishing sight near by. Mary loved to fish! Retirement also gave her the opportunity to take art lessons and paint, garden, entertain, travel, begin her family's genealogy, and take an active part in the activities of the Solana Beach Presbyterian Church.

Although Mary never married, she mothered the children of relatives and friends and was known as "Aunt Mary" to many who were not related. She once told a friend she almost felt like the "old woman in the shoe, who had so many children she didn't know what to do." Birthdays were special to her, and all of her "children" got a birthday cake, if they happened to visit her on their special day.

After Mary Elsie's death in 1979, Mary went to live in the Mt. Miguel Covenant Village in Spring Valley, CA. She lived there for the last 22 years and was a very active member of the community. It was there she celebrated her 100th birthday in 1993, surrounded by 350 relatives and friends. She thoroughly enjoyed the day and commented in her Christmas greeting, that for her it was the Celebration of the Century!

Mary Elizabeth Bricker quietly departed from her earthly journey on June 30, 2001, having lived in three centuries. She is survived by a niece, Neva (Bricker) Reit of Camarillo CA; a nephew, Glendale Bricker of Mulberry, IN - the only surviving children of her brother, Harry Bricker. There are numerous great-nieces and nephews, as well as two more generations of nieces and nephews surviving. There are many adopted families who will join her family in missing her sweet smile and loving disposition. Although small in stature, she was very tall in the life she lived. The remaining generations have a very large pair of shoes to step into, now that she is gone.

A memorial service will be held at the Bailey Center in Mt. Miguel Covenant Village in Spring Valley, CA on July 28, 2001 at 2:30 PM.
